

JICK MUNRO & THE AMAZING LASERBEAMS
BEGGARS OF BONES

I sat with you till early morning
There be time enough left for to cry
But every heart that's been broken
Leaves its mark along the rest of this life

Time passed quickly and so did we
We had no chance to make up for faults
And it seems we have learned it the hard way
It doesn't matter, it's all ending now

Forever I shall see no more
I'll keep you from the beggars of bones
But for now we'll stumble on
Forever I shall see no more

Darling I have rested so long know
It is time that I went away
This morning begins at a new dawn
And more then near, drenched to the skin

Forever I shall see no more
I'll keep you from the beggars of bones
But for now we stumble on
Forever I shall see no more
